ORDER OF THE BATH.

War Office, 30th May, 1865.

HER MAJESTY has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of Surgeon Major William Munro, M.D., 93rd Foot, and Surgeon Major Henry Bruges Buckle, 1st Punjab Infantry, to be Ordinary Members of the Military Division of the Third Class, or Companions, of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath.

CIRCULAR.

CIRCULAR MEMORANDUM.

Addressed to General or other Officers Commanding Stations at Home and Abroad.

Horse Guards, S. W., 8th June, 1865.

It having been brought to the notice of the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief that certificates to travelling and other claims are furnished by Officers without their previously satisfying themselves that the details set forth are properly preferred, and as such neglect is calculated to defeat the object for which the certificates are required, and to render them matters of idle form rather than verification of the correctness of the claim, his Royal Highness directs the attention of General and other Officers in command at home and abroad to this subject, with a view to their impressing upon Officers under their orders the necessity of exercising a more strict observance of the intention of a certificate before corroborating by their signatures the correctness of the statements therein contained.

The Secretary of State for War, in causing recent instances of irregularity of this nature to be referred to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, has expressed the belief that the Officers were not influenced by improper motives in furnishing the certificates, but that they acted through want of care and misapprehension as to the responsibility attaching thereto.

His Royal Highness, relying on the honour of the Officers of the Army, feels assured on this point, and doubts not that the notice thus taken of the irregularity will be the means of establishing a strict observance by them of the nature and object of the documents in question.

By Command of HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF.

JAMES YORKE SCARLETT, Adj. Gen
